

Cynthia's Fine Fabrics

Cynthia's Fine Fabrics is excited to offer you an evening of inspiration and creativity while helping to raise dollars for Alzheimer's Disease research.

“The Alzheimer's Art Quilt Initiative (AAQI) is an Internet-driven, grassroots, totally volunteer effort to raise awareness and fund research through art.” One way to donate to AAQI is to submit small art quilts (maximum size 9” x 12”) to AAQI. AAQI will present the quilts on its website and auction the quilts. All proceeds from the sale of the quilts will go towards Alzheimer's research. <http://www.alzquilts.org>

On Wednesday, April 16th 2008, Susanne McCoy, a nationally known art quilter, will join us at Cynthia's from 6 pm to 8 pm. Susanne will guide and inspire us in making small art quilts. <http://www.susannequilts.com/>

Please call Cynthia's to reserve your space – space is limited to 10 participants. Susanne will donate her time and expertise. Cynthia will provide machines and supplies. You will donate your time, creativity and your small quilt.

Please bring a 14” square of cotton fabric for your “background” and any embellishments you would like to use.

Remember you must call and enroll to save your space. 954-724-2900.
